

Daisy is an experienced Contract and Area manager within the Legal and charitable sector, she is a graduate and postgraduate in Law, Criminology, Forensic Psychology and Advice and Guidance.

Daisy has been with Reeves & Co Solicitors for over 7 years as Managing Director, overseeing all aspects of the business.

Since working for Reeves and Co, Daisy's role has also included case working and representing clients on notable, high profile cases including murder, attempted murder and sexual offences. She has been involved in many not guilty verdicts and has a talent to ensure every client receives a fair and correct verdict. If a client wishes to plead guilty.

Daisy is able to use her previous experience to ensure a fair sentence is received by pursuing all aspects of mitigation and presenting them effectively on the clients behalf.

Before Reeves & Co, Daisy had a very successful career at Royal British Legion Industries, she managed successful teams and delivered on several large government contracts, whilst also operating as a trainer and life coach. She was awarded Employee of the Year for her commitment to the organisation and clients.

Daisy has spent over 15 years working with people with complex needs, she treats each client with respect, empathy and understanding. Daisy has worked throughout the UK and worldwide with defendants, military personnel, people in prison, people with convictions and those with mental health conditions or learning difficulties, this combined with her qualifications and training makes her a highly competent advocate and Managing Director.
