

Mary has been working at Reeves and Co since April 2023. She has a wide range of experience managing cases from drink driving to sexual offences. Her role is to support clients through their cases from start to end and ensure all aspects of case preparation are completed. Mary prides herself on offering a non judgemental and empathic approach to all of her clients and will always ensure high standards are met.

She currently is working towards completing her Paralegal qualification and Police Station Representative Accreditation and aspires to become a fully qualified Solicitor in the not to distant future.
